Creative Communications

Creative Portfolio

I'm Marize Rizk

A communications and digital content professional focused on creating meaningful, engaging, and visually driven content.

About

I'm a communications and digital content professional with experience across public relations, academic institutions, and the food & beverage industry.

My work combines strategic communication with creative execution, from developing content calendars and managing social media platforms to creating campaigns, covering events, and turning complex ideas into accessible digital content.

Creative Perspective

Good communication starts with a clear message.

I focus on transforming ideas, research, campaigns, and brand stories into content that people can easily understand and connect with.

From a social media post to a large-scale event, I pay attention to the message, audience, visual direction, timing, and overall experience making sure every piece of content has a purpose.

What I Create

Social Media Content
Posts, stories, reels, captions & content calendars

Digital Campaigns
Campaign concepts, promotional content & platform execution

Visual Content
Canva designs, social assets, presentations & promotional materials

Event Content
Live coverage, event visuals, stories & real-time communication

PR & Communications
Press releases, media content, proposals & client communications

Execution Process
